

WASHINGTON AFFAIRS.

WANT THE GOVERNMENT TO ASSUME FOR BOSS SHEPHERD'S STEAL.

The Next Cabinet Meeting—An Insane Woman Tries to See the President.
Californians Able to Foretell the Weather—On the Anxious Seat.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The district authorities will, it is understood, urge upon Congress to assume the entire debt of this district, over $20,000,000. They will argue that the debt was incurred by the Shepherd board of public works, who were appointed by authority of an act of Congress, notwithstanding a provision in the law that the debt should under no circumstances be over $10,000,000. This debt was funded in a sixty-day district improvement bond. Already by an act of Congress the general government is responsible for the interest on these bonds, though the district has to pay one-half. The plan now is to get the general government to assume the principal of the debt as well as to guarantee its interest.
Similar efforts have been made in previous Congresses, but without success. No steps have ever been taken in the direction of prosecuting the officials who incurred the debt for their criminal violation of the law.
There were but few calls at the White House and they were restricted to officials.
A great many supposed that the president had started for Indianapolis, not having read in the morning papers that he had changed his plans. The cabinet will hold its but meeting prior to the assembling of Congress Thursday. It is understood that the members of the cabinet who were present at the funeral of Vice President Hendricks will arrive here on Wednesday night. On Thursday the president will have his complete message in type, and will read it at the meeting of the cabinet. Secretary Munding will also have his report ready for presentation to the cabinet.

When the president came down to the East Room he found about forty persons awaiting him. The ceremony of shaking hands with them lasted but a few minutes.
Five minutes after the president had gone into the dining room to take his lunch a very excited looking woman called at the White House and demanded that her card should be taken to the president. She was so nervous that she could hardly hand her card to the doorkeeper, who politely told her that she could not take her card to the president.
The woman grew even more excited, and charged that the doorkeeper could present the card if he wished to, but that he was determined that she should not see the president. The doorkeeper said that she had, during the day, made several attempts to see the president. The impression of those who witnessed the scene was that the woman was of unbalanced mind. It was said that she thought she had some important facts to communicate in regard to the death of the vice president and the question of presidential income.

A Californian who arrived here said there was a great deal in the papers of late in regard to the temporary closing up of the weather bureau in San Francisco, but that the people of San Francisco took but little interest in it.

"On the Pacific coast," he said, "we have a rainy season and a dry season, and the weather predictions, as issued by the San Francisco office, were of no consequence, for the reason that every one knew what the seasons were on, and they knew as well as the officials in charge of the weather bureau office when the change would occur and what they should look for."

Chairman of committees.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The impression is growing here among those who have talked with Speaker Carlisle that there will be no radical changes in committee chairmanships in the house, but that a number of prominent men will be made. Where former chairmen have failed of reelection, it is thought in most cases the next on the list will be moved up. According to the last roster of the house, the chairman of the more important committees elected and prospective will be as follows:

Electrics—Chairman, Turner, of Georgia, re-elected.

Ways and Means—Chairman, Morrison, of Illinois, re-elected.

Appropriations—Chairman, Randall, of Pennsylvania, re-elected.

Judiciary—Chairman, Tucker, of Virginia, re-elected.

Banking and Currency—Ernestment, of Pennsylvania, second on the list, chairman, Aylist H. Buckner, of Missouri, having been defeated.

Rivers and Harbors—Chairman, Willis, of Kentucky, re-elected.

Foreign Affairs—Chairman, Curtin, of Pennsylvania, re-elected.

Post Offices and Post Roads—Besse, of Georgia, second on the list, vice Chairman Money, defeated.

Manufactures—Hon. Charles I. Mitchell, of Connecticut, next in eligibility, Chairman Bigley having been defeated.

Pacific Railroads—Throckmorton, of Texas, next in order to Chairman Cassidy, defeated.

Labor—O'Neill, of Missouri, vice John Hopkins, defeated.

Patents—Nagleton, of Mississippi, vice Chairman V. W. of Mississippi, defeated.

Pensions—Fittman, of South Carolina, vice Chairman Hewitt, defeated.

On the Anxious Seat.

New York, Dec. 3.—The Sun's Washington special says: "The Republican members are awaiting the arrival of Mitchell, of Oregon, with some interest. Mitchell was elected by Democratic votes, and undoubtedly he will make certain pledges to those pledges include a promise to vote with the Democrats on the question of organization is asked by every body, and he knows what he will do. Then there are Van Wyck, of Nebraska, Rubin, of Minnesota, Blair, of New Hampshire, and one or two other Republicans who are a little hesitant and uncertain at times, and Miller, of California, who is too sick to be here at the opening of the session. It will be a change of three or four votes to deprive the Republicans of any majority at all, and their attempt to force Logan through a candidate may result in their defeat."

"John Sherman will have his first supporter in the person of Fryer, of Maine. His colleague, Mr. Hale, has been pledged to Logan by Mr. Blaine. Senator Morrill, of Vermont, who is claimed as a Logan man, will support Edmunds."
